

IN SEARCH OF GOD IN FACT AND THE DIVINE EQUATION

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1. The primordial innocence of man, and the beginnings of the creator gods.

Chapter 2. The first god of the book of Genesis is the oldest god in the world and it resembles the Nature, as much as the ancient man understood the Nature.

Chapter 3. The short analysis of this most ancient creation model devised by the ancient man, and his gods as described in the first chapter of the book of Genesis.

Chapter 4: The end of the primordial “innocence” of the ancient man and the arrival of the killer man and of the usurper.

Chapter 5: The specific historic examples of the usurper and opportunists, the killer tribes, invading the land of farmers and the fishermen.

Chapter 6: The arrival, and the rise of the killer gods and the usurper gods, and the perversion of reality and denial and defilement of the creation of the first god of the first chapter of the book of Genesis.

Chapter 7: The total escape from reality, and the responsibilities of life, and the rise of the celebrations of death, the magnificent delusions and the Chaldean deceptions of the “gospels”.

Chapter 8: The humiliation of the ancient Lord God, the only god of the children of Israel, and his subsequent death. The rise and fall of the “gospel” gods and their death.

Chapter 9: Short comparison of the evolution and decay of the various gods of man of his past in the so-called Western Civilization.

Chapter 10: Deliverance and the divine equation.